APPLICANT UNDER CLAUSE 1.1

I am the holder of an overseas qualification, acceptable in the country in which it was obtained as being of professional standard in architecture, and which the Committee may consider in my case to be of comparable standard to a recognised certificate in architecture granted in New Zealand.

I hereby apply for determination of AERB Special Certificate conditions.

I attach payment for the fee of $700.00 + GST = $787.50 (cheques payable to AERB)

Applications must comply with the requirements of the Regulations, which are supplied with this form.

Applications should be made on this form and be sent with the supporting material required by the regulations and the appropriate fee to the Registrar, Architects Education and Registration Board, PO Box 11106, Wellington.

Applications should reach the Registrar on or before 15 April and 15 October in any year.

Applicants admitted to the Special Certificate Interview will be interviewed in Auckland or Wellington. Each applicant will be notified of the place, date and time of their interview.

If an applicant is required to undertake courses at a tertiary institute, it is the applicant's responsibility to enrol for the courses and pay any fees required.
